“These are the few ways we can practice humility: To speak as little as possible of one’s self. To mind one’s own business. Not to want to manage other people’s affairs. To avoid curiosity. To accept contradictions and correction cheerfully. To pass over the mistakes of others. To accept insults and injuries. To accept being slighted, forgotten and disliked. To be kind and gentle even under provocation. Never to stand on one’s dignity. To choose always the hardest.”

— Mother Teresa

“We learn humility
through accepting humiliations cheerfully.”

Sirach 2:5

For gold and silver are tested in fire, yet truly, acceptable men are tested in the furnace of humiliation.

Obedience

'Obedience is mission: "I have come into this world to do the will of my Father, who has sent me." Where there is no obedience, there is no virtue; where there is no virtue there is no good; where good is wanting, there is no love, there is no God; where God is not, there is no Heaven.'

St. Padre Pio

Obedience

“The more we see that any action springs not from the motive of obedience, the more evident is it that it is a temptation of the enemy; for when God sends an inspiration, the very first effect of it is to infuse a spirit of docility.”

St. Teresa of Avila,
Doctor of the Church

Obedience

Don't give in to discouragement..... If you are discouraged it is a sign of pride because it shows you trust in your own powers. Never bother about people's opinions. Be obedient to truth. For with humble obedience, you will never be disturbed.

Calcutta

A landscape photograph of a mountain range at sunset. The sun is a small, bright orange-yellow circle in the center of the frame, just above the horizon. The sky is a gradient of orange and yellow, fading into a deep blue. The mountains are silhouetted in various shades of blue, with some peaks visible in the distance. The text 'Go God!' is overlaid in large, white, sans-serif font on the left side of the image.
